

REMARKS

This is a full and timely response to the outstanding non-final Office Action mailed November 15, 2005. Reconsideration and allowance of the application and pending claims are respectfully requested.

I. Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 102(b)

Claims 1-5, 7-18, 20-21, and 32-35 have been rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b) as being anticipated by Shachar (U.S. Pat. No. 5,923,736). Applicant respectfully traverses this rejection.

It is axiomatic that “[a]nticipation requires the disclosure in a single prior art reference of each element of the claim under consideration.” W. L. Gore & Associates, Inc. v. Garlock, Inc., 721 F.2d 1540, 1554, 220 USPQ 303, 313 (Fed. Cir. 1983). Therefore, every claimed feature of the claimed invention must be represented in the applied reference to constitute a proper rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b).

As is indicated above, each of independent claims 1, 13, and 18 has been amended through this Response. In view of those amendments, Applicant respectfully submits that the rejections are moot as having been drawn against Applicant’s claims in a previous form. Applicant briefly discusses the claims and the Shachar reference, however, in the following for the Examiner’s consideration.

Shachar discloses a hypertext markup language based telephone apparatus. Shachar, Patent Title. Applicant’s claims, however, are directed to “dedicated printing devices” and associated methods. Although Shachar describes “fax services” 107, Shachar does not state that his “telephone/terminal” 100 is configured to directly provide such services or that the telephone/terminal is configured to receive and print facsimile transmissions. The Shachar reference therefore fails to anticipate Applicant's claims for at least these reasons.

With specific regard to dependent claim 8, Applicant notes that Shachar does not teach a device that comprises a local server module that is configured to serve markup language documents to "a remote computer". Applicant notes that column 13, lines 42-54, which was identified in the Office Action, describes Shachar's telephone/terminal as receiving content from a remote computer (i.e., "server"), not serving content to a remote computer.

II. Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 103(a)

Claim 6 has been rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shachar in view of Yan ("Yan," U.S. Pat. No. 6,003,065). Applicant respectfully traverses this rejection.

As is identified above, Shachar does not teach several aspects of Applicant's claims. In that Yan does not remedy the deficiencies of the Shachar reference, Applicant respectfully submits that claim 6, which depends from claim 1, is allowable over the Shachar/Yan combination for at least the same reasons that claim 1 is allowable over Shachar.

III. Canceled Claims

Claims 19 and 22-35 have been canceled from the application without prejudice, waiver, or disclaimer. Applicant reserves the right to present these canceled claims, or variants thereof, in continuing applications to be filed subsequently.

CONCLUSION

Applicant respectfully submits that Applicant's pending claims are in condition for allowance. Favorable reconsideration and allowance of the present application and all pending claims are hereby courteously requested. If, in the opinion of the Examiner, a telephonic conference would expedite the examination of this matter, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned attorney at (770) 933-9500.

Respectfully submitted,
